

In Loving Memory of Trace Santos-Barber

May 6, 1991 ~ February 6, 2006

Trace was a freshman at Peoples Academy, a member of the Class of 2009.

Trace was an active member of the Vermont Zen Center in Shelburne, a Zen Buddhist Sangha.

Trace was a member of the PA cross-country ski team and a member of the PA cross-country running team. He played for Lamoille Union High School on their lacrosse team in the spring of 2005 and he planned to participate this spring as well. Trace also played for Morrisville teams in baseball and soccer.

Trace loved recreational skiing and mountain biking. Trace most recently began to learn to telemark ski.

Trace played the bass guitar, bass horn and drums with the PA band. Trace's interest in music began in elementary school when he learned to play the saxophone.

Trace was known for his sense of humor and practical jokes. He had a keen eye for the comedy that could be found in irony.

In Loving Memory of Sigrid Anna Bronner

July 4, 1989 ~ February 6, 2006

Sigrid was a Junior at Peoples Academy, a member of the Class of 2007.

Sigrid was a member of the First Congregational Church.

Sigrid was a member of the PA cross-country ski team, cross-country running team and the track and field team. All were state championship teams.

Sigrid was very involved in the PA Drama Club and the Lamoille County Players.

Sigrid was a member of the PA Chorus and the Select Chorus. She was an All-State soloist as a freshman and received a scholarship for All-State vocalist this year.

Sigrid attended the Boston Conservatory and Westminster College summer solo-vocal camp programs.

Sigrid could be heard singing in the halls, classrooms, on the bus, and in the car. She loved to sing and wanted to be an opera singer.
